

Advanced Lesson 3: Preaching and Teaching the Word

Preaching and teaching are central to advancing the Gospel and equipping believers. This lesson highlights biblical principles for proclaiming God's Word with accuracy, authority, and humility. Drawing from 2 Timothy 4:2, James 3:1, and Nehemiah 8:8, students will learn the difference between preaching and teaching, the character of the messenger, and how to rightly divide the Word of truth.

Fill In

- Preach the Word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke, and _____—with great patience and careful instruction.
- Not many of you should become _____, because you know that we who teach will be judged more strictly.

Multiple Choice

- Which scripture commands us to preach the Word?
  - A) 2 Timothy 4:2
  - B) Matthew 5:1
  - C) Psalm 100
  - D) John 1:14
- What does Nehemiah 8:8 describe?
  - A) Worship service
  - B) Scripture reading with explanation
  - C) A prophecy
  - D) A healing miracle

Single Choice

- Which book warns teachers about stricter judgment?
  - A) James
  - B) Acts
  - C) Romans
  - D) Luke
- Preaching is primarily for:
  - A) Entertainment
  - B) Motivation only
  - C) Declaring the Word of God

D) Sharing stories

True False

- Teaching God's Word carries a great responsibility. (True)
- Preaching doesn't require preparation as long as you're passionate. (False)

Reflection

- How can you better prepare yourself to teach or preach God's Word with clarity and love?
- What do you believe God is calling you to do with the Word He's placed in your heart?