

Intermediate Lesson 7: Living on Mission

Living on mission means understanding your role in God's kingdom and actively sharing His love through your words, actions, and lifestyle. This lesson is centered around Matthew 5:14–16 and Acts 1:8. You are the light of the world, called to shine wherever God places you. This final lesson inspires boldness, compassion, and purpose-driven living for Christ in everyday life.

Fill In

- You are the _____ of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden.
- You will receive power when the _____ comes on you.

Multiple Choice

- What does Acts 1:8 say believers will become?
 - A) Disciples
 - B) Witnesses
 - C) Judges
 - D) Teachers
- Where are believers called to be witnesses?
 - A) Only in church
 - B) Just in Jerusalem
 - C) Everywhere — locally and globally
 - D) On Sundays only

Single Choice

- What should we let shine before others?
 - A) Our talents
 - B) Our knowledge
 - C) Our good deeds
 - D) Our opinions
- Living on mission includes:
 - A) Avoiding people
 - B) Only going on trips
 - C) Everyday faithfulness
 - D) Being famous

True False

- Jesus said to hide your light so others don't notice you. (False)
- The Holy Spirit empowers us to live on mission. (True)

Reflection

- How can you be more intentional about sharing God's love in your daily life?
- Where is God calling you to be a light in this season?